FP403

28" x 20" x 15" attached-lid tote offers generous internal capacity for all types of products in the apparel, home goods and automotive aftermarket industries. The FP403 is part of ORBIS' FliPak family of distribution totes and is ideal for the handling, storage and shipment of larger, bulky items as well as small lightweight items shipped in bulk.

This reusable plastic attached-lid container takes the place of corrugated shipping boxes, for long-term packaging savings. Like all FliPak containers, the FP403 stacks when full and nests when empty for the most efficient use of available space. Learn how FLIPAK containers adds efficiency throughout the supply chain.
